

Robalo R200 (2019-)

Brief Summary

We recently spied the all-new Robalo R200 at the New York Boat Show and were immediately impressed. This is a company that prides themselves on keeping their boats affordable, but if that's the case then why is there so much stainless steel and upscale features in this boat? Apparently the team at Robalo did not get the message that these things are all supposed to be left out. In our opinion the R200 certainly does offer a lot of bang for the buck.
